Head Teacher's Notice Board

Another busy week at St Anne Line, and the children have been working really hard and positively at school. It has also been wonderful to hear all of the lovely comments from the children about our newly painted "St Anne Line Way".

We look forward to Bishop Alan coming to the school soon to bless it. Have a wonderful and restful weekend,

Miss N Watson

The Centenary of the Diocese of Brentwood will be celebrated in 2017 and this will be marked in a variety of ways.

The Brentwood Diocesan Archives holds a large set (4,000 or so) of photographs. However, I wish to appeal for further donations of photographs for the Archives (originals or copies and, preferably, marked on the reverse with person, event and date etc.). Such donations from the parishioners, schools and convents of the diocese would greatly enhance our collection of illustrations of parishes, schools and convents.

Please send any photographs to: Rev. Stewart Foster, Brentwood Diocesan Archives, Cathedral House, Ingrave Road, Brentwood, Essex CM15 8AT.

KARATE CLUB SPACES

FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT

Yesterday I attended a 7 a side football tournament at James Hornsby School. There were 10 schools competing with 10 boys teams in the 'A' team competition, 5 boys in The 'B' team competition, and a separate girls tournament. Our boys competed in the 'A' competition and reached the semi-finals -& our girls were runners-up. Everyone had a great time and thoroughly enjoyed this fast-paced version of the longer 11 a side game. We need to thank the coaches and the staff at James Hornsby for a well run event, that was played in the spirit of good sportsmanship.

Kind regards,

Martin Barry
