Head Teacher's Notice

This week began with a selection of our talented writers travelling to 'Shrek's Adventure' in London to participate in a writer's workshop. They had a great time and came back with lots of ideas to use in their own writing.

On Tuesday it was the Boy's Football Team's turn to play their first competition of this academic year at James Hornsby School; they played really well and did the school proud. Well done boys.

Today we had our first no notice practice Fire Drill; the children were superb at evacuating the building, in silence in exactly 2 minutes! Well done.

Next week is a busy week at school, so be sure to check the dates to see what's happening.

Thank you for your continued support, and have a lovely weekend,

Miss N. Watson
