Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 15th March 2019

It has been an unusually quiet week for events and activities this week, but the children and staff have still been working hard.

The children in years 3, 4 and 5 have been continuing to prepare for their assessments next week, and we look forward to see some wonderful results from their hard work.

The Cheerleading Teams have also started their rehearsals in preparation for their first competition in a few weeks - they are looking fantastic already!

Exciting news for our Rock Band, who have been rehearsing too, ready for their first official concert on 28th March in front of the school and their parents - It has been a fantastic addition to our music provision at the school, thank you to Mr Lilley who has put the band together.

Thank you for your continued support and have a wonderful weekend,

Miss N. Watson

Artsmark
AWARDED BY ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

The school is beginning the exciting journey to obtain the Artsmark. We have so many musical and creatively talented children at the school, and the Artsmark will give the children and the school recognition for this. It is a unique award, and recognises the specialist offer at St. Anne Line Catholic Junior School.

Internet Safety

Following on from the children's Internet Safety Day, and text home to parents regarding the recent craze (which has been confirmed as a hoax), we are now asking parents to monitor their children's use of the game 'Fortnite', as unfortunately, concerns are now being brought into school. We thank you for your continued support.
