Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 29th November 2019

It's been a busy two weeks at school...we have had the first of our House Assemblies, with leaders in Florence Nightingale and Martin Luther King Houses sharing information about the lives of our school's icons and why they remain such important role models.

During last Wednesday's Careers Assembly, the children met Julian Simon-Parson, who is a semi-professional footballer and owns his own recruitment company.

Last Thursday, the children and staff had fun learning during 'No Pens Day' - children were able to use their imagination, debating skills, speaking and listening skills, and creativity in their lessons throughout the day.

On Thursday, we hope the children enjoyed their organised free session at 360 Play and had lots of fun.

We then had a lovely long weekend, although on Sunday, we celebrated National Youth Sunday at Holy Trinity Church - thank you to Mrs Slee and all the children who came, in school uniform, to lead and take part in the mass.

This week it has been fantastic to be able to dedicate a whole week to the Arts Subjects as part of our school's journey to achieve the ArtsMark. The work the children have produced is incredible, and it's been great to see so many techniques used and explored.

During Wednesday's Career Assembly this week, the children met Nick Bright - an actor. It was great to hear about his job and his demonstration of his latest role as Richard III, showing at The Palace Theatre, Southend.

We ended this week, and the month of November, with the children's Reconciliation Services - preparing them for the Christmas season.

Have a lovely weekend,

Miss N. Watson

Safeguarding at the Heart of Our School

St. Anne Line Catholic Junior School Parking Campaign

Safeguarding at the Heart of Our School

This week we have been working hard with the local Police to help raise the awareness of unsafe driving and parking of parents around our school. Tickets are now being issued by police - CCTV evidence is also being requested by the police to capture drivers when the police are not actually present.

The response by parents who walk to school, from both the Junior and Infant school, has been overwhelmingly supportive, and it was great to see a predominately safe and clear road on Thursday.

Unfortunately, there were still some parents who ignored the hard work of our pupils and the police and continued to drive up the road, causing road blocks, in order to drop their child to school.

Please Drive and Park SAFE!
