Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 13th December 2019

It's been another busy week at school...

On Monday, our hockey team came first, winning Gold, in their tournament at James Hornsby and are now through to the Essex Finals next year - well done to the team!

On Tuesday, we had our fabulous Christmas Music Concert for all the children who have been learning instruments at school. There was such a huge variety of music talent being showcased - well done to all the children who took part, and thank you to all the parents and members of our school community who came to support the children.

Wednesday was a busy day at school...first the children had an 'Election Day' Assembly to get them started in preparations for the 'Vote Day' which was held on Thursday. It was an exciting day helping the children understand further about British Values and the voting system for the General Election - the children loved casting their own vote!

We then had SAL Christmas Carollers attend Stock Brook Manor for their first tour event singing in the community. The children were given such high praises.

On Wednesday, we also had our Year 2 Open Evening for children and parents to come and look around and hear about the exciting opportunities we have to offer at our school - it was great to see so many people visit and for the school to receive such glowing reviews.

On Friday, we had our last 'Book Look' of 2019 - it is always great for the children to share, and get excited about, their work with their parents. Thank you to all who came and supported their child's learning.

Have a lovely weekend,

Miss N. Watson
