Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 20th December 2019

It's been another busy week at school...
What a busy last week of the Autumn Term..!

The children loved the disco on Monday and really got into the Christmas spirit.

Wednesday, really felt like Christmas at school, with Christmas jumper day, Christmas dinner and and a fabulous SAL's Got Christmas Talent...it was a truly wonderful day. Massive thanks must go out to all the staff, who served all the Christmas Dinners and helped clear up afterwards.

On Thursday, the children sang so beautifully at their Carol Concert at Holy Trinity. It was wonderful to see so many parents attend too, thank you to all who came.

We ended the week with the children running and attending their own Christmas Bazaar; great fun was had by all.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year,

Miss N Watson

Taking holiday/unauthorised days during Term time MUST BE IMPROVED!

As you can see the number of parents taking their child out of school for holidays in term time has a disastrous effect on the school attendance percentage and YOUR CHILD's EDUCATION - The school staff work extremely hard to give the best education for your children, and we thank those parents who value their child's education, and value our school St. Anne Line Catholic Junior School.

We're working towards Artsmark Awarded by Arts Council England
