Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 20th June 2025

We have had such a busy, but wonderful week.

The children across the school have been celebrating The Arts this week. The theme this year was Windrush, therefore artwork, music, dancing, singing, writing, poetry and so much more was based around this theme. The children even took part in a Steel Pan workshop on Monday and a Cartoon Drawing workshop on Wednesday. As well as all the individual classes completing projects, the whole school (staff as well) took part in a whole school Art project - it is magnificent.

On Wednesday evening we held our Summer Music Prom, the rock band kicked off the event with style, followed by an array of gifted musicians from across the school - well done to all the children and to Mr Lilley for hosting the evening.

We ended Arts' Week with our Windrush BIG Breakfast. It was wonderful to see so many parents enjoying their breakfast, looking around the school and even joining in with the carnival - What a great week.

This weekend we pray for those children who will be making their First Holy Communion.

Have a wonderful weekend and God bless,

N. Watson

Prayer

Lord,

We thank You for the Windrush generation and their descendants. We celebrate Your image in each and every single person. We acknowledge who they are, their gifts, talents, culture, and way of life. We thank You for the many contributions they have made to our society, and we pray a blessing over them and their generations.

Amen

"Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it." Hebrews 13:2
